

CANOLFAN Y CELFYDDYDAU ABERYSTWYTH ARTS CENTRE

Press Release
Datganiad i'r Wasg

Heather Summers
At Aberystwyth Arts Centre

Thursday 9 February

Eccentric, eclectic, multi - instrumental. Heather may be one woman, but she makes one astonishingly BIG sound. There's never a dull moment in this melodic, intriguing and ambitious set.

With the use of live looping, before your eyes and ears, Heather layers up whole soundscapes using an eclectic and ever expanding mix of instruments, styles, vocals, and sounds " -----makes for a head spinning brew" The Musician

A classically trained violinist with a background in improvisation, Heather has added many more instruments over the years- mandolin, cajon, harmonic flute, synthesiser----. She has performed & recorded with various folk & world bands in Wales & Australia, and is currently putting her energy into her One Woman Show "----- a mix of her own material in a brilliant composite build-up of sounds that had more impact than many of the multi instrumental bands that played" Fred Davies, Space Productions

Following the recent launch of her new album 'Pleiades', Heather has embarked on a schedule of touring projects and performances across Wales and Europe. Catch her at Aberystwyth Art Centre for a memorable evening.

The performance starts at 7:45pm. Tickets are £6.50 (£4.50). Tickets can be booked by calling the Aberystwyth Arts Centre box office on 01970 623232 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre .

Ends

Further information from Aberystwyth Arts Centre is available from Rachel Scurlock on 01970 622894 email rls@aber.ac.uk

Canolfan y Celfyddydau Aberystwyth Arts Centre
Aberystwyth Arts Centre is a department of Aberystwyth University.
www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre