The younger members of the Arts Centre's highly popular Stage School tread the boards once more, presenting Little Monsters at Aberystwyth Arts Centre from Thursday 25th to Saturday 27th March.

Ben has accidentally broken his mother's prized ornament. She calls him a 'Little Monster' and sends him out into the garden as a punishment. In the garden Ben finds all the other Little Monsters, Cheeky Monkeys, Terrible Twos and Fidgets, and together they have to find a way to become children again.

Little Monsters is a fantastic opportunity for the younger members of Stage School to perform in a professional theatre environment and put into practice all the skills they have learnt in studying drama, dance and voice. Director Richard Hull says: "It always amazes me how quickly children of this young age (5 – 8 years) are able to learn lines, lyrics and choreography. This is a wonderfully imaginative story for young children with lively songs and it promises to be a lovely exhibition of their emerging talents".

Tickets for this performance are £6 (£4) and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre Box Office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
