Martyn Geraint a'r Losin Hud
19 January 1pm & 7pm
20 January 10am
A Welsh language production
Suitable for children aged 4-11yrs

Once again Martyn Geraint and friends are on their travels around Wales with a deliciously delightful new performance of the classic tale of Hansel and Gretel, Martyn Geraint a'r Losin Hud (Martyn Geraint and the Magic Sweets). Martyn Geraint will perform at Aberystwyth Arts Centre on Tuesday 19 January at 1pm and 7pm and Wednesday 20 January 10am.

Martyn Geraint a'r Losin Hud follows the tale of siblings Hansel and Gretel who try and escape the evil clutches of the wicked old lady who wants to keep them in the woods. Enter their trusty friend Martyn, who with the help of his new friends, the audience, will try to save the day. If he's lucky, he might also get the girl of his dreams.

Martyn Geraint is well known for his performances on S4C's children's programmes; Cegin Twts, Planed Plant and Cyw and is joined this year by a new and talented cast, some of whom are Wales's most experienced actors. Familiar faces including Geraint Hardy from Planed Plant; Victoria Pugh from Theatre Clwyd and Elin Llwyd and Ieuan Rhys from Pobol y Cwm.

"I believe that this is the best panto yet and the initial reaction from the audiences has been amazing," Martyn said.

So if you're looking for a family feast of fun and frolics with the charming tale and unique MG style then why not come along.

Tickets for this performance are £8 (£6) School children £5 and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre ticket office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
