Aberystwyth Warden's Dramatic Society present Moll Flanders- The Musical at Aberystwyth Arts Centre from Wednesday 26th to Saturday 29th May.

Abandoned by her mother, married five times, a baronet's mistress, a plantation owner and a professional whore and thief... Moll Flanders is a woman to watch. This is her adventure story from rags to riches, from Colchester to the USA. She looks good - she sounds better and if you enjoy a good romp, you'll love this!

First directed by Richard Cheshire in Virginia, America where critics called it 'one of the most exciting and innovative productions to visit the USA in years'.

This production contains scenes which are not suitable for children. Tickets for this performance are £10 (£8) Saturday Matinee £7 and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre Box Office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
