PRESS RELEASE

Rhod Gilbert & The Cat That looked Like Nicolas Lyndhurst 8pm, Wednesday 17 February 2010

Following last year's sell-out tour and sensational performances on 'The Royal Variety Performance', 'Live At The Apollo', and 'Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow', the Welsh Wonder is back with a brand new show. Rhod Gilbert's new show, The Cat That Looked Like Nicolas Lyndhurst, at Aberystwyth Arts Centre on Wednesday 17th February has completely sold out.

"Comedy Manna from Heaven."
THE INDEPENDENT

Last year, Rhod punched a shop-assistant over the duvet tog-rating system and went berserk over a mince pie. This year Gilbert's given his show a ridiculous title just to annoy someone in Canterbury. Is he, as he believes, a visionary in a sea of closed minds, or has he, as everyone else believes, got anger management problems?

Rhod Gilbert first toured to the Arts Centre in 2006, when he performed to a small but appreciative audience of 60 in the Arts Centre theatre. Since then each visit has seen increasing audience numbers, and now his fourth gig at the Arts Centre has him selling out the Great Hall with over 900 people booked to see his latest award winning show. Comedy Programmer Louise Amery says "It is fantastic that Rhod's show has done so well. I first saw him years ago at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival performing in a tiny portacabin, so its great to see him now selling out big concert halls. We always try to book new up and coming comedians at the Arts Centre alongside more established names, and this season we have a great line up with new faces like Issy Suttie, Josie Long , Maeve Higgins, and Luke Wright as well as some personal favourites of mine, The Scottish Falsetto Sock Theatre Company – don't miss them!"

Tickets for Rhod Gilbert's new show the Cat That Looked Like Nicolas Lyndhurst are Sold Out.
