RANDOM PEOPLE DO RANDOM THINGS and House are two new performance works by Showroom. These works were developed as part of the Arts Centre's Resident Performance Companies Programme. Showroom will present RANDOM PEOPLE DO RANDOM THINGS in the Arts Centre Studio on Monday May 3rd, 7.45pm. House will be performed in the Great Hall on Tuesday 4th May, 7.45pm.

RANDOM PEOPLE DO RANDOM THINGS

3 May 7.45pm (Studio)

Random people pointing their finger at someone innocent. Random people dancing in the street. Random people getting punched in the face. Random people enjoying their 15 minutes of fame.

HOUSE

4 May 7.45pm (Great Hall)

With a vast hoard of household goods, furniture and a team of 10 performers the rooms of House will take the stage to present the place of the home; a conjuring trick of domestic proportions, where familiar homely objects conspire to overturn and destroy our notions of the human abode.

Showroom is a performance collective, curating and creating performance and live art events in and beyond Aberystwyth since 2008. Showroom are one of the first Performing Arts Companies in Residence at Aberystwyth Arts Centre.

Tickets to each performance are £5 (£3) and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre Box Office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
