This August the Aberystwyth Arts Centre will open the first Summer Craft & Gift Fair. The Fair will run from Thursday 6th August to Sunday 6th September.

The Summer Fair hosts over 40 stalls featuring an extensive range of arts, crafts and foods, including a wide variety of high quality produce from around Wales.

Some of this year's producers include Penlon beer, Pembertons award winning chocolate, delicious jams from Cegin Suzanne, Angelsey sea salt from Halen Mon, and Tropical Forests honey. The Fair is the ideal opportunity to discover the wide variety of quality food and drink produced in Wales.

The Summer Fair is also the perfect opportunity to discover some of the best Welsh craft producers. Beautiful ceramics, woodwork, jewellery, and handmade home accessories and ornaments from artists based locally and throughout Wales will be on sale. Work by Mid Wales based artists including Jeremy Moore and Eve Smith will also be on sale. There is also the chance to indulge: treat yourself to Monamor's luxurious bath soaks and body creams, or Nia Duggan's soaps and Gwdihw natural balms.
