PRESS RELEASE

The Manfreds
Friday 19 February 8pm

Canolfan y Celfyddydau
Aberystwyth Arts Centre

The Manfreds perform at Aberystwyth Arts Centre on Friday 19th February, 8pm.

Original Manfred Mann members Paul Jones, Mike Hugg and Tom McGuinness, and former member Mike d'Abo, are joined by Rob Townsend, Marcus Cliffe and Simon Currie as the exciting new line-up of The Manfreds, featuring both lead singers from the 1960's band. This promises to be a wonderful evening of hits from the musicians who bought you 5-4-3-2-1, Do Wah Diddy, Pretty Flamingo, Ha Ha! Said The Clown, My Name Is Jack and The Mighty Quinn amongst many more.

If there's one band whose individual musical accomplishments have over the years gone from strength to strength, whilst still encapsulating and keeping alive the golden age of British popular music, then it has to be The Manfreds. Since The Manfreds re-formed in 1991, they have been in constant demand throughout the world... understandably, considering the number of top ten hits they had, not only with The Manfreds, but also individually. Their live gigs burst with that quirky mix of solid gold pop, jazz and rhythm & blues which was always their trade mark add in a generous helping of showmanship and charisma and the result is a show as pleasing to the ears and eyes as it ever was.

Tickets for this performance are £18.50 and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre Box Office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
