PRESS RELEASE

Wy a Llwy
Lyngo Theatre

Sunday 25 April 2.30pm

For ages 3 and under.

Performed in the Welsh Language.

Lyngo Theatre return to Aberystwyth Arts Centre to present Wy a Llwy on Sunday 25th April, 2.30pm.

Percy and April take you from summer to winter and back to spring again in this multisensory, highly interactive experience with something for everyone. You can relax on our cushions and watch the birds fly in the blue sky or get stuck in with making it snow and blowing the leaves away. Either way you'll have helped Percy and April's tree to get its blossom and sped through a whole year in just half an hour.

Everyone's attention is caught when Percy and April give out the gifts of nature to use during the show – the bird song, the spring rolls (with flowers or butterflies), the 'other man's grass' (it's always greener), the night-sky blankets – all of which get opened at the right moment.

Make some friends while you play peek-a-boo in the puddles or dance at the butterfly party. You'll see how everyone likes to sleep on the moon cushion or cover themselves with snow from their first year to their fortieth, from spring to autumn and back again.

This is the highly interactive version for the under 3's of Lyngo's very popular Watch the Birdy show where you can simply rock and roll around the clock to our lullaby or crawl into the middle and be a star!

Tickets for this performance are £6 (£4) Cardi Card £5 (£3) and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre Box Office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
