PRESS RELEASE

Wardrobe Diaries by CITRUS
7.30pm, Saturday 10 October 2009

Truly, a Rumble in the Jumble

New Welsh company CITRUS perform Wardrobe Diaries at Aberystwyth Arts Centre on Saturday 10th October at 7.30pm.

In a rich mix of aerial and acrobatic skills, dance, honest imagination and quirky humour, the CITRUS crew move up, down and around a wall of 20ft climbing poles and two tonnes of discarded clothing.

Wardrobe Diaries is based on those Sunday afternoon clothing clear-out moments that remind you of not going to bed without your favourite Spiderman pyjamas, wearing a fur coat at a festival, things that belonged to Grandparents, the costumed Hen/Stag-night you had last summer and all of that stuff you bought, but never wore.

Featuring the music of Ted Barnes (composer to Beth Orton), the lively, soulful beats of Mr Scruff and a cast of top-end circus and dance artists, Wardrobe Diaries is set to become Wales' new must-see show.

CITRUS are a new Welsh company founded by James Roberts and Bridie Doyle, creating work that sits between circus, physical-theatre and dance.

James was a performer in the Millennium Dome central arena show and has since worked on many cutting-edge circus shows across Europe – from playing a clowning, acrobatic flying Duck onstage at the National Theatre, performing in shows on the nightclub circuit of Moscow, to Olympic-scale opening ceremonies, he recently co-ordinated the aerial performance of European Capital of Culture opening ceremony 2008.

Tickets for this performance are £8 (£7) CC £7.50 (£6.50) and can be booked by contacting the Arts Centre ticket office on 01970 62 32 32 or online at www.aber.ac.uk/artscentre
