

Rhod Gilbert and the Award-Winning Mince Pie at Aberystwyth Arts Centre

On the 5th February, Rhod Gilbert will perform his critically acclaimed comedy show at Aberystwyth Arts Centre. The performance will begin at 8.00pm.

A service station somewhere. Christmas 2007. About 2.40am. Rhod Gilbert finds himself standing in the coffee shop bit, armed with a travel pillow, a flask and a very powerful torch, aggressively demanding to know more about an 'Award-Winning Mince Pie' on display on the counter. Suddenly aware of what he is doing, Rhod is forced to acknowledge that he may be having a very mild nervous breakdown. How did it come to this? He doesn't even like Mince Pies. The pressures of living in a tedious, pointless and absurd world surrounded by idiots have finally taken their toll. Perhaps he should never have left his fantasy world of Llanbobl in the first place. This is the slightly ridiculous story of how one Mince Pie broke the camel's back.

Following sell-out hits in 2005, 2006 and 2007, the multi-award winning Welsh comedy sensation and 2008 if.comedy Award Nominee returns – make sure you don't miss Rhod Gilbert at Aberystwyth Arts Centre!

'A virtuoso performance. Every moment is exhilarating, passionate and sparkingly funny.'  CHORTLE

'He's given this his all. And it shows. Gilbert's performance is powerhouse and this show is his best yet.'  METRO
